

GED . . . Look At Me Now!

*Pat Deose, Brook Park
GED Graduate, 2010*

"When I was laid off I pretty much had to start over. But everywhere I applied wanted a high school diploma."

"So I took GED night classes in Hinckley and some classes in Pine City, whatever fit in with my schedule."

"My advice? Get your GED or you won't be able to get a decent job."

A GED diploma is your stepping-stone toward college, a better career, and family-sustaining wages. After December 2013 the new test will be more difficult, more costly, and computer-based. There's even more good reason to do it now!
