

GED Testing Service Announces Program Changes

A new, more rigorous GED Test aligned with Common Core State Standards designed to ensure career- and college-readiness begins in January of 2014. Computer Based Testing will be the only method available to obtain a GED certificate.

The current version of GED Testing will continue until December 31, 2013. Duluth Adult Learning Center/GED Testing Service continues to offer GED Test Preparation, Practice Testing and the actual GED Exam. Note: the current version of the GED Test (2002 Version) will also expire on December 31, 2013. Participants must complete all five GED Exams by that date, to be awarded their GED Certificate.

Start the path to completing your GED today; call 336-8790 for more details. Registration schedule: Mondays at 9:00 a.m.
