The Memory Quilt Project met the following CCR and ACES Standards:

Reading Anchor 1: Read closely to determine what the text says explicitly, and to make logical inferences from it; cite specific textual evidence when writing or speaking to support conclusions drawn from text.	Reading Anchor 2: Determine central ideas or themes of a text and analyze their development; summarize the key supporting details and ideas.
Reading Anchor 3: Analyze how and why individuals, events, and ideas develop and interact over the course of a text.	Reading Anchor 5: Analyze the structure of texts, including how specific sentences, paragraphs, and larger portions of the text (i.e. a section, chapter, scene, or stanza) relate to each other and the whole.
Speaking and Listening Anchor 1: Prepare for and participate effectively in a range of conversations and collaborations with diverse partners, building on each others’ ideas and expressing their own clearly and persuasively.	Speaking and Listening Anchor 2: Integrate and evaluate information presented in diverse media and formats, including visually, quantitatively, and orally.
