MyMnCareers helps working learners (adults with less than a Bachelor’s degree) to take the steps needed to pursue and advance in a career pathway. This free website can help job seekers and English Language Learners to explore careers, set goals, get training, and learn more to be successful.

MyMnCareers is actually three websites in one.

The first section of the site is for English Language Learners unfamiliar with the U.S. workplace or their career options.

The middle section is for those finishing high school or their GEDs and looking for post-secondary training and career information.

The third section is for people who earned their GEDs and need to know how to advance in their career, or move into a college or advanced job-training program.

MyMnCareers is a first-of-its-kind website created to help people who usually struggle with making career plans or finding better-paying jobs. It reinforces career development concepts used by Minnesota Adult Basic Education programs, WorkForce Centers, and other organizations serving working learners.
This section is for immigrants and people who want to learn basic English skills.

Want to know what jobs you can get in the U.S.? Go to MyMnCareers and click the purple button that says, “I am ... An English Language Learner.”

---

Finishing High School or My GED

This section is for people who do not have a GED or high school diploma. It is for people who are unemployed or want to find a better job.

Do you want a better paying job? Go to MyMnCareers and click the green button that says, “I am ... Finishing High School or My GED.”

---

This section is for adults ready to move into higher-skilled jobs. It is for people who want to go to college or to a job-training program.

This section has information to help plan your next career. It has tips for overcoming problems when looking for a job.

Are you ready to make career goals and plan for success? Go to MyMnCareers and click the aqua button that says, “I am ... Done with High School/GED and Want to Advance My Career.”

---

MyMnCareers is one of Minnesota's Working Learner Web Tools
www.iseek.org/mymncareers/working-learner-tools.html

Feedback about the website: www.iseek.org/info/contactus.html

MyMnCareers was produced by Southwest Minnesota Adult Basic Education and iSeek Solutions with funding from the Otto Bremer Foundation.

Minnesota State Colleges and Universities is iSeek Solutions’ fiscal agent and an Equal Opportunity educator and employer.